

Economic Opportunity

Financial well-being and health go hand in hand. When Coloradans' have fewer economic concerns, they are more likely to maintain a baseline of health.

How We Will Reach Our Vision

The Foundation is currently developing a strategic approach to supporting economic opportunity in Colorado. As that work takes shape, we will share more information. In the meantime, we will be meeting with organizations and community members to help inform our approach to this vital priority area.

Resources

- Learn more about current open funding
- Access the latest information about Coloradans' perspectives on health through Pulse, the Colorado Health Foundation Poll
- Apply for our annual Dr. Virgilio Licona Community Health Leadership Award
- Stay updated about our work by joining our mailing list

Program Officers

Emilie Rodriguez Ellis Senior Program Officer